Documentation for error_msg_num subroutine

Kode Creer

Global subroutine name: error_msg_num

Purpose: a subroutine that outputs the typical error message that is used when after we validate our input and get an invalid value for number ranged prompts

Parameters: None

Return values: None

Limitations: As long as you have the variables used to contain the string in the main.s file. It has none

Dependencies: print (another subroutine), io.h